Evolving Soul

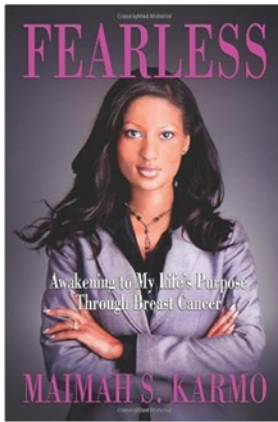

The ability to evolve is one of the greatest gifts of humankind. It is the magic of developing from one level to the next, from one state of being to another, from realm to realm. But how can you evolve when your life is falling apart - when the best things about life are slipping away? The power of evolving is that it is an inner transformation and can occur in even the most tragic circumstances. Though we may start as something simple, we can grow to something that is complex in depth and beauty.

Maimah Karmo, Tigerlily Foundation President & Founder

Fearless: Awakening to My Life's Purpose Through Breast Cancer (2012)

A breast cancer diagnosis at age thirty-two left Maimah Karmo's world shattered. She was the survivor of civil unrest in Liberia, a college-educated corporate professional, and a dedicated mother to her young daughter--breast cancer was not part of the plan. How could this happen? With the help of family and friends, Maimah uncovered her own strength, rediscovered her faith in God, and navigated a completely foreign medical world. Through this struggle to reclaim her body and her soul, she learned what was truly important in life--and she didn't stop there. During recovery, Maimah took a leap of faith and founded the Tigerlily Foundation, an organization that supports young women before, during, and after breast cancer. She had lived through her own journey; now she wanted to help others do the same. This inspiring account covers Maimah's journey through an exceptional childhood to her experience with cancer that would change her life forever. It is not only a story of love and determination, but also of what can happen when you are given a second chance at life. Fearless illustrates that even when a situation appears to be impossible, true faith--in yourself, in God, and in those you love--will lead you toward the life you always wanted, the life you have a reason to fight for.

The Badass Girl's Book of Prayers: For Girls with Soul, Sass and a Lot of Badass

Life is a prayer, and how you express that prayer is an expression of your truth in all its beauty, its divinity, and its humanness. The purpose of life is to express all that our souls desire within the time that we are here. One of the ways we can stay true to that expression is through alignment with Higher Power, and through communication with that "all there is" energy. When we pray, we are communicating our sacred truth from a spiritual place in all its raw beauty and strength.

Unicorn Boss: Running Towards Bliss and Being Tapped the F*ck In

We live in a world that teaches us to put on masks from the day we are born. We are taught about labels and are pressured into applying them to everything in our world. We are molded into what we ought to be. Throughout our lives, we encounter multiple traumas - small ones and large ones, and we learn to pack them away because we are taught to be "bosses", to "soldier on"; and in the event we expose our truths, vulnerability can be perceived as weakness. And so, we show the world what it wants. We deny our traumas and truths until they demand to be seen. Yet, it is when we face the truth of who we really are that we can stand in our power and our light. Being in our divine truth is where we are really tapped into life.

Divine Downloads: Transforming Through Trauma

Divine Downloads: Transforming Through Trauma came about as a process of me sharing my morning downloads from God, random thoughts and feelings. I usually received these downloads during my morning prayer time. I've always talked to God, and as I went through an emotionally tumultuous time in my life, I turned even more so to Spirit, Divine energy, and wrote down whatever came to me. I shared my thoughts on love, trauma, strength, hope, releasing and being able to be where you are. These downloads were healing for me, as I worked through my emotions. They helped me to see my strength, my truth, my humanity and to learn acceptance. Divine Downloads: Transforming Through Trauma provides food for thought, in the form of quotes, journal pages and reflective questions to inspire you. My hope is that this gift transforms you too.

Making it Through the Storm

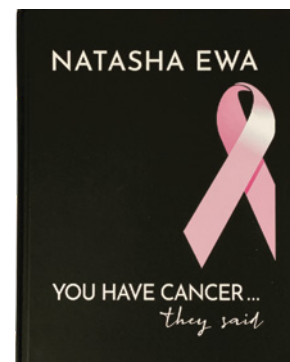

At 36, like most people, I was focusing on raising my children and building a career when I received devastating news that my mother was diagnosed with Breast Cancer and only had a little over 6 months to live. Several months later while assisting in caring for my mother, I found out that I too had breast cancer. A couple of months after my diagnosis, my sister was diagnosed with Breast Cancer. All in the same year! I was assisting in caring for my dying mother, sister, and staying strong as a mother, wife, daughter, and sister while fighting one of the hardest battles of my life. Just when I was starting to live life again, my father was diagnosed with prostate cancer. When I was going through the storm, it was hard to fathom ever being on the other side. In this book, you will read about the importance of keeping the faith in the midst of the storm. Knowing that God was in control kept me pushing when I was weak.
